"YOU LAY LIFE ON A TABLE AND CUT OUT ALL THE TUMORS OF INJUSTICE. MARVELOUS." -DR. ZHIVAGO

Dedication: Mrs. Cheryl Eckert

The Memini Yearbook Staff would like to announce that the 2016 Yearbook Dedication goes to . . . Mrs. Cheryl Eckert!

Insightful. Competent. Strong-willed. All are accurate when describing Mrs. Eckert, but that is not to say that she is that simple either! When asked to describe her, most students would agree that her passion definitely lies with making sure her students receive the education they deserve, no matter the difficulty, no matter the obscurity, and no matter the form of teaching that she must employ. All of her other "sponges" (a term she uses when referring to her students) would say that "passion" is an understatement. As former English Department Supervisor Dr. Judith Chelte puts it, ". . . a lot of her appeal stems from her very firm moral convictions: If she thinks that she's right, she goes to the wall, so to speak, to defend her position. And she carries that dedication into her teaching."

Her students' lives are not the only ones she has managed to improve through her hard work, however. As the advisor of Chicopee Comp's Key Club, Mrs. Eckert has organized many different events to help support local VFW's and the American Legion. One particularly memorable event that the Key Club brings to our school is the September 11th flag ceremony. Hosted in front of the flagpole every year, Mrs. Eckert, the Key Club members, as well as multiple veterans gather to pay their respects to those who died on that horrendous day.

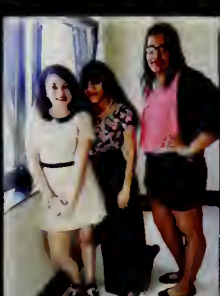

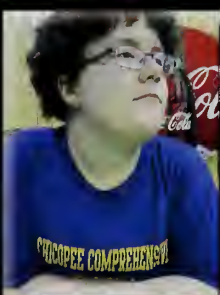

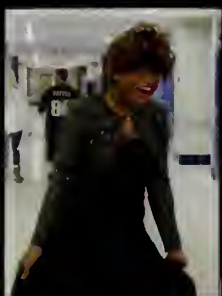

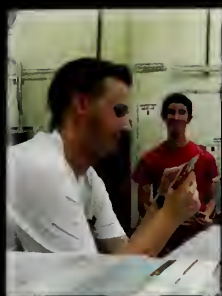

Mrs. Eckert's history in education is as deep as the conversations in her classroom. After graduating from Elms College with her Bachelor's and Master's degrees, she decided that her best decision was to settle down and start a family. Her teaching career did not officially start until her kids had started school, which obviously freed up her time. Cheryl had taught in other schools before moving to CCHS; she taught for ten years in both Holyoke Catholic High School and Smith Vocational High School before finally making her way to our hearts.

Thank you, Mrs. Eckert, for your service to our school. You have enriched so many of our lives.

OUR CLASS ADVISORS

"WE SINK, WE SWIM, WE RISE, WE FALL, WE MEET OUR FATE TOGETHER!" -LEAN ON ME

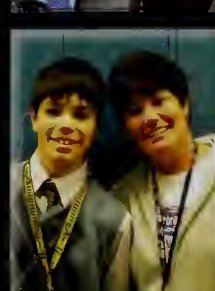

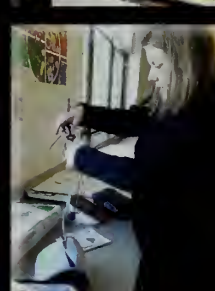

Without a doubt, the Class of 2016's success can be attributed to the hard work of our two amazing advisors, Ms. Card and Ms. Pavoni. They have spent the past four years making our high school experience truly unforgettable; from dance-offs, to proms, to patiently reminding us (over and over again) about our Senior Dues. They guided us with style and class, and we are forever grateful.

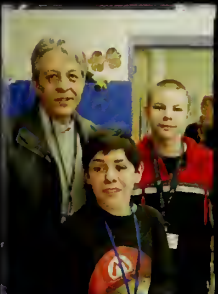

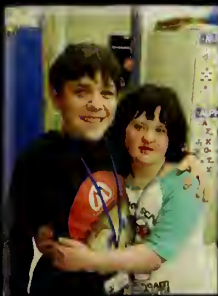

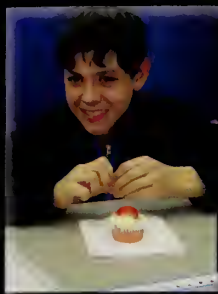

Ms. Card and Ms. Pavoni demonstrate the value of knowing all of the line dances!

Ms. Pavoni, Ms. Card, and Ms. Wolf look sharp at the 2015 Junior Prom.

IN MEMORY

Nicholas McCullough, a member of the Chicopee Comprehensive High School Class of 2016, passed away on September 5, 2014. Nick was a longtime member of Best Buddies and a dedicated fan of the Boston Red Sox. His friendly smile is greatly missed by all of the students and staff who were lucky enough to know him.

With the help of advisor Ms. Freisberg and business manager Mr Brown, we are able to put the best years of our lives into print. To the staff members who worked very hard, and the teachers who spent the month of March with tension headaches, we dedicate this spread. Without them, this book wouldn't have been possible.
